To the understanding Reader.

Doe not studie Eloquence, or professe Musicke, although f doe loue Sence, and affect Harmony: My Profession being, as my Education hath beene, Armes, the onely effeminate part of me, bath beene Musicke; which in mee hath beene alwayes Generous, because neuer Mercenarie. To prayse Musicke, were to say, the Sunne is bright. To extoll my selfe, would name my lahors vaine glorious. Onely this, my studies are far from seruile imitations, Frobbe no others inventions, Itake no Italian Note to an English dittie, or filch fragments of Songs to stuffe out my volumes. These aremine own Phansies expressed by my proper Genius, which if thou dost dislike, let me see thine, Carpere vel noli nostra, vel ede tua, to ve a modest shortnes, and a briefe expression of my selfe to all noble spirites, thus, My Title expresseth my Bookes Contents, which (if my Hopes faile me not) shall not deceive their expectation, in whose approvement the crowne of my labors resteth. And from henceforth, the statefull instrument Gambo Violl, shall with ease yeelde full various and as deuncefull Musicke as the Lute. For here f protest the Trinitie of Musicke, parts, Passion and Division, to be as gracefully united in the Gambo Violl, as in the most received Instrument that is, which here with a Souldiers Resolution, I give up to the acceptance of al noble dispositions.

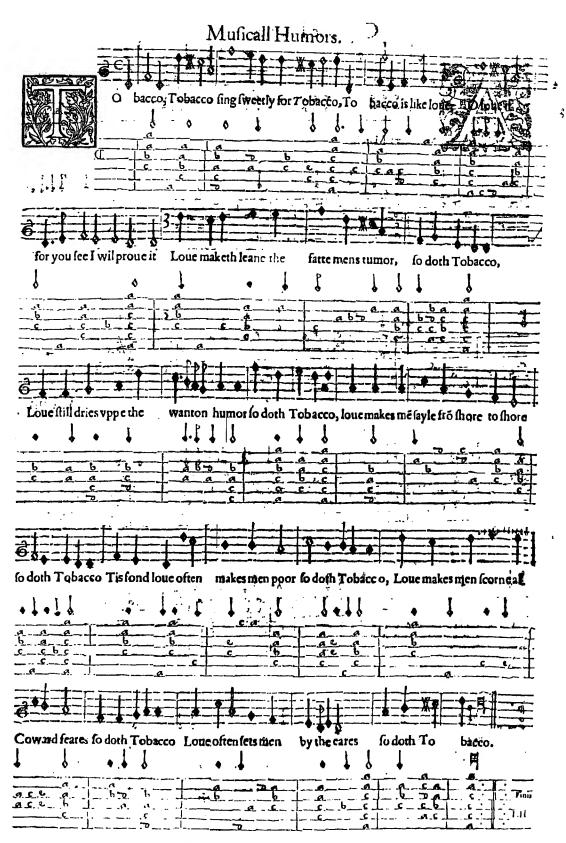

The friend of his friend,

TOBIAS HVME.

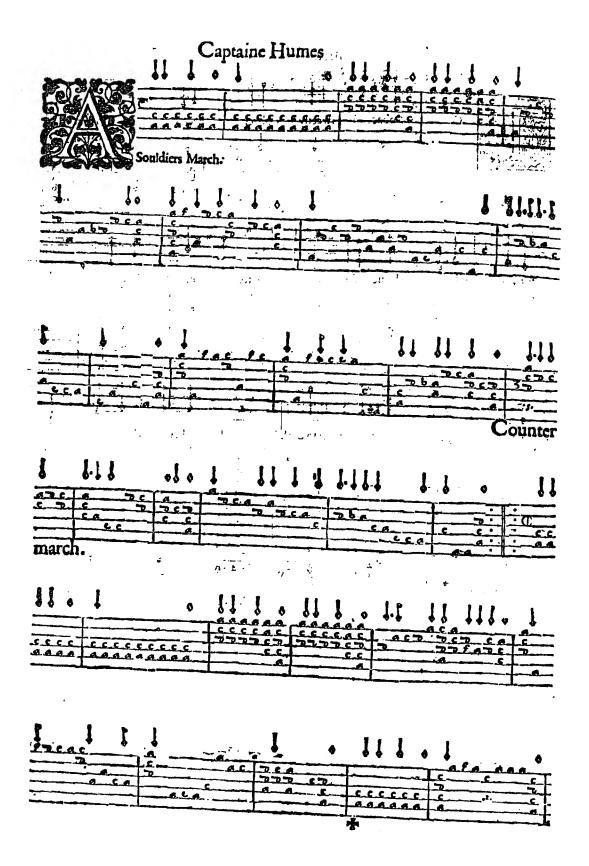

If you will heare the Viol de Gambo in his true Maiestie, to play parts, and singing thereto, then string him with nine stringes, your three Basses double as the Lute, which is to be plaide on with as much case as your Viol of sixe stringes.

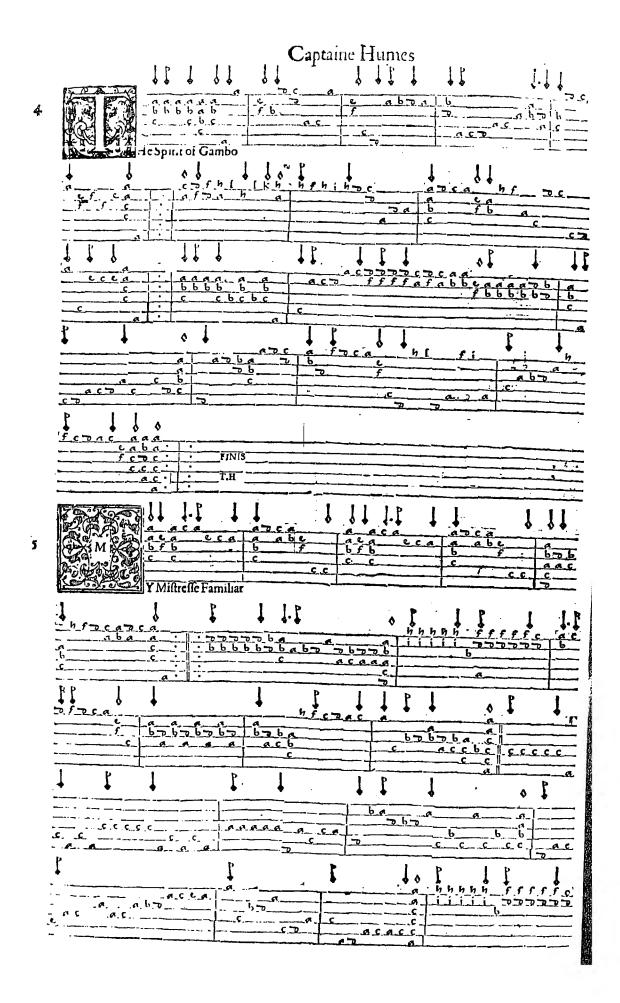

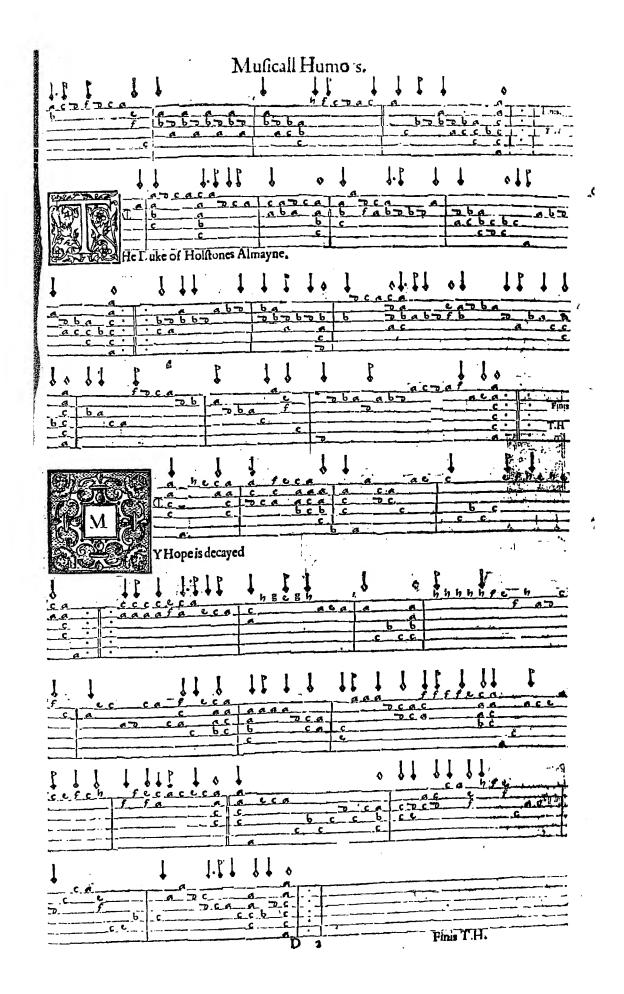

Tobaccoe, Tobaccoe
Sing sweetely for Tobaccoe,
Tobaccoe is like Loue,
O loue it,
For you see I haue prowde it;
